white man. I have taken pairs to inquire of some who were transported to Cuba daring the last three years, whether they wished to raturn to their own country, and they invariably stated that they did not. The simple reason of this is that hey are protected there from a perpetual war—a w s in which mercy to the conquered is unknown, so the st the captive is killed the moment he is scized, and it a mitigation of the penalty of defeat when he is so is into foreign bondage. There seem those masters in greecd with the conviction of what they owed to the creatures, leaving nothing undone that kindner a could prompt, at the same time that they provided or all their spiritual and temporal wants. I didn't see who own slaves, and those who are masters of hired parameters in greech with the conviction of the see who own slaves, and those who are masters of hired parameter. The see who own slaves, and those who are masters of hired parameter. The see who own slaves, and those who are masters of hired parameter. The did the see the see given to them, for instruction, example, and correction. How noble are the prerogatives of an enlightened man, who has the power and the will to perform the duties of a Christian towards those benighted creatures, to prepare them for the discharge of their duties in this life, and for the eternal glory for which they were created I Unless this become a domestic concern, unless it be brought home to those who have authority in society—those who are the sovereigns is the domestic aircle—those who are looked upon as superiors by children—those who are the sovereigns is the domestic aircle—those who are concern, and the seed of the production which they find in the hearts of the young. Let us all sendenvor to imittate the pastorship of the good Shepherd, for we are all shepherds each in his own sphere—such one who has been especially entrusted with the care of others. The May Term of the Law Courts.

This being the first Monday in the month, the May term of the law courts will be opened; but as it is also the day of general moving and change of tenants, jurors will be scarce, and consequently little business can be transacted. Some of the courts whose sessions continue from last month, have adjourned until to-morrow, deem ing it useless to meet on the first of May. The suit of Ms. Collier, late Collector of San Francisco, is postponed until Tuesday, when the summing up will be commenced. The Court of Oyer and Terminer also stands adjourned mtil to-morrow. Counsellor Hayes and his wife will be tried for the murder of Doctor Lutener. The counsel of torney will elect that of Mrs. Hayes to be first disposed of. The Superior Court held four trial terms during the past two weeks, and will have the same number for the last two weeks of the present term, in order that the calendar may be gone through and the court adjourned before the summer vacation. The inactivity of the Common Council of New York still leaves the courts scattered In accordance with the usual and established practice the Grand Jury will be empannelled in the Court of Gene-ral Sessions to-day, to whom will be submitted the calandar of crime for the May term, and all cases not already acted upon by former grand juries. The petit jury will

The calendar for this term is, as will be seen, a very heavy one, and presents a fearful catalogue of crime— there being no less than twenty cases of grand larceny, mixteen of burglary, seven of forgery, four of robbery, two of maybem, two of felonious assault and battery, three of abandonment, one of malicious mischief, one of bigamy, one of aastardy, one of attempt to kill, one of number of bail cases, many of them of a serious charac-ter, requiring the most careful scrutiny on the part of the petit jury. Under the new law against the use of if convicted, will be sentenced to the State prison, perhaps. The "Tailors' Conspiracy" case is set down for this term, and, if it comes off, will not be concluded be-

These, together with many other important cases set down for trial, will render the May term of this court a very interesting and busy one. and, as usual, will see that, while the rights of the acsused are observed on the one hand, the laws of the State are not to be transgressed with impunity on the

The Common Council.

The Board of Aldermen commence their May sessions this evening, and have appointed the hour of meeting to be at 6 in the evening for the future. One of the first matters to be brought under their consideration is the concurrence with the Councilmen for an appropriation to re-crect a suitable building for the law courts. We hope speedy action may be had on this important move-ment, and that the work may be commenced without

This being the first Monday of the month, the Board of Councilmen will commence their session for the month of May, this evening. The Board will no doubt resolve itself into Committee of the Whole every night this week, as there were an innumerable quantity of papers referred to that committee, towards the close of the

It is very probable that some notice will be taken of the late Broadway catastrophe, and measures, we hope, will be taken by the Board to prevent, if possible, the repeti-tion of such calamitous accidents. It is expected that the report of the Fire Wardens, laid on the time ago, announcing that there were in the city some five hundred buildings constructed in a manner similar to that of Mr. Jennings' store, so extremely dangerous in case of fire, to all who may be in the vicinity, will be taken from the table and immediate action had thereon.

The contracts awarded to parties a few days ago cleaning the streets of the city in accordance with the amended charter, and by a late ordinance of the Common Council, will be received, and will, we suppose, be con-firmed, unless some fraud may be detected therein.

We opine that the severe castigation this portion of the Common Council bave received at the hands of the press and the people during the past month, will have the effect of cooling their eloquence, which will be ne-cessarily followed by closer attention to the public duties

More Roguery at the Post Office.—Another young man was arrested at the Post Office, on Saturday afternoon, while attempting to get possession of the contents of the letter boxes, who, from discoveries already made, and his own confessions, turns out to have been some thing of a bold operator in that line. His personal appearance had been pretty well described to the officers of the Post Office Department, by the person who was de-tected in similar frauds on Friday, and a sharp look-out was accordingly kept for him. Just before the time for closing the office, he appeared at one of the box windows, and called for the letters of Messrs. Putnam & Co., and subsequently for those of Messrs. Frost & Co., and was secured before he had fairly obtained them. On being taken isside the office, he represented himself to be in the employ of Messrs. I. T. & J. G. Frost & Co., in Front street, for whose letters he had called. A message was despatched to a member of each of those firms, who respectfully refused to endorse his statements, and he was name is James W. Hall, and his age about twenty years, though his cool and indfferent demeanor was that of an

We are glad that the Post Office authorities are ferreting out these dangerous frauds in so energetic and suc-cessful a manner for the protection of the business comnunity; and we hope that our business men themselves will as promptly adopt all the measures in their power to add to the safety of their Post Office correspondence.

The wife of Alex. Powers, of Ohio county, Kentucky, confesses that she poisoned that gentleman, who died last week, after lingoing several days in agony. Mrs. P. says this was the second attempt she has made to sever the bends of wedlock.

Twenty-first Anniversary of the Sabbath School Missionary Association of the West Presbyterian Church.

The twenty-first somiversary of the Sabbath School Missionary Association attached to the West Presbyte rian church, Chrmine street, was celebrated in the usual interesting style last evening. The edifice was crowded with intelligent little boys and girls, who all seemed to interesting style last evening. The edifige was crowded with intelligent little boys and girls, who all seemed to take a deep interest in the proceedings.

The exercises of the evening were commenced with the singing of a hymn composed for the occasion.—

We come, oh God, with gladness,
Our humble thanks to bring;
With hearts yet free from sadness,
Our hymns of praise we sing.
Along our path are glowing
The tokens of thy love.
Like streams of bounty flowing,
Thy mercies from above.

The pastor of the church then offered up an eloquent prayer, thanking God for his bounteous gifts and the blessings that he had bestowed upon them during the past year.

The report of the Treasurer was then read, from which it appeared that the collections of the juvenile society, by the male branch, was $100 by the female branch $142 had been collected—making a total of $259 collected by both branches during the past year. $21 60 was paid for printing the annual report, and $237 95 was paid into the treasury of the American Home Missionary Society. An address was then delivered to the children by the Rev. J. C. chapin, who expressed a wish that the members of the society would continue in their endeavors to do good, and above all, that they should be kind to the poor, and obey their parents and spiritual advisers. This was a home missionary society; their work was to be done at home—in the country of the United States. Their labors were felt on the banks of the Ohio and Mississippi—on the shores of the inhand seas and the shores of the inhand seas and the shores of the inhand seas and the shores of the Rocky Mountains, on the extensive prairies, the missionary can be found preaching the word of God to the rade inhabitants of the far West.

The following hymn was then sing by the boys and girls:

Lord, send thy word, and let it fly,

Armed with thy Spirit's power;

Ten thousand shall confess its sway,

And bless the saving hour.

Fencat the influence of thy grace

The burren wastes shall rise,

With sudden greens and firmits arrayed

Pencath the influence of thy grace
The barren wastes shall rise,
With sudden greens and fruits arrayed,
A blooming Paradise. A blooming Paradise.

The pastor of the church, the Rev. &r. Skinner, then delivered an interesting address to his little flock, admonishing them to persevere and become good Christians, children of God. They should pay great attention to the instructions of their pastors, and should never forget that while they were enjoying the fruits of the Gospel, many thousands were, he was sorry to say, perishing for the bread of life. Their little donations might work as great wonders as the largest donations made by millionaires at their death.

A collection was then taken up, and subscriptions nade by millionaires at their death.

A collection was then taken up, and subscriptions were received to pay for the expenses incurred during e coming year.

The children and congregation then sung the follow

The children and congregation then sung the following hymn:

Gird thy sword on, mighty Saviour;

Make the word of truth thy care;

Prosper in thy course, triumphant;

All success attend thy war;

Gracious victor,

Bring thy trophles from afar.

Majesty combines with meekness;

Righteousness and peace unite

To insure thy blessed conquests;

Take possession of thy right;

Ride triumphant,

Dressed in robes of purest light.

The benediction was then pronounced and the assemblage went home.

New Music. IGS OF THE PRIMA DONNAS-MADAME WALLACE BOU CHELLE. - Jollie, the well known music publisher, 300 Broadway, has in preparation six songs composed by Madame Wallaco Bouchelle, and published under her supervision, vis:—"Ah! for thee!" dedicated to Miss Charlotte Wood, of Buffalo; "When Darkness gathers round us," dedicated to Mrs. McKnight, of New York city; "Lord of the Yalley, where goest thou," to Miss Juliette Tryon, of New York city; "Child among the flowers at play," to Miss Alexina Lee, of New York city; "Youth Yearnings," to Miss Ella Lawman, of Harrisburg, Pa.; national authem,

"God, whose hallow'd hand."

These musical gems will be appropriately set in one collection, forming the twelfth number of the "Songs of the Prima Donnas," with illustrated title pages—price two dollars. A correct portrait of Madame Bouchelle will be added, and as her fame, both as a composer and vocalist, is now extended over the civilized world, we have no doubt that the "collection" will have a great sale, and be found upon every pianoforte in the land.

The religious societies have as yet only partially announced the times of their anniversaries. We make up in tabular form such meetings as have been set down in the
